Public Servant of the Year Award, 2021

Donald Rencher

Group Executive, Planning and Development City of Detroit

For your outstanding leadership to help reduce eviction in Detroit during the COVID 19 pandemic while improving housing conditions and code enforcement for renters and preserving affordable housing for ALL Detroiters. We thank you for your extraordinary work and leadership and recognize you as our Public Servant of the Year.

Maryann Mahaffey/Erma Henderson Elected Official of the Year Award 2021

Mary Sheffield

President, Detroit City Council

For your outstanding leadership in sponsoring housing initiatives to benefit low-income Detroiters. You have led the efforts for more inclusionary housing, improving city code enforcement to ensure quality housing, and increased funding available for home repairs. Most recently we thank you for your efforts to establish Right to Counsel in eviction cases to protect our most vulnerable citizens. We thank you for your creative, thoughtful, and dedicated service and we honor you as our "Mahaffey/Henderson Elected Official of the Year"

James Sheehan/Beverly McDonald Lifetime Achievement Award 2021

Deborah Choly

For your over 25 years of service to United Community Housing Coalition and Michigan Legal Services to prevent evictions and tax foreclosures, fight lockouts, and improve housing conditions for thousands of low-income Detroiters. In addition, we honor your lifetime of service to the peace community in protests and in representing protesters to raise awareness of issues of vital concern to our city, or state and our nation. For all this and so much more we recognize you with this life-time achievement award.

Cassandra Walker

For your more than 30 years of leadership with Westside Mothers advocating for the rights of low-income families in Detroit to receive cash assistance, food stamps, childcare, health benefits and housing in countless individual administrative hearings, and for your tireless efforts, advocating with others at the city, state, or national level, to improve the lives of low-income people everywhere, we recognize you with this life-time achievement award.

Community Advocate of the Year 2021

Tonya Myers-Phillips

For your tireless efforts in the “Detroit Right to Counsel Coalition” to persuade Detroit to join the growing national movement, to provide for a right to counsel in eviction proceedings, currently operative in 25 cities across the country. Your work in this arena to ensure that all low-income people are represented in eviction proceedings, enforces a basic human right to decent and affordable housing and protects against homelessness and its devastating consequences for vulnerable families with children, the elderly, persons with disabilities and veterans. For your dedicated and persistent efforts to render a reality for an eviction right to counsel in Detroit, we recognize you as our “Community Advocate of the Year”.

Rocket Man Award 2021

Alex Alsup

We thank you for your support for the Make It Home project, the creation of UCHC's repair project to supplement Make It Home, your support to prevent evictions during the COVID 19 outbreak and your support for UCHC to help in planning for our sustainable growth as we sore into the future. We wish you all the best and every future endeavor and we appreciate all that you have done to help improve the lives of low-income Detroit residents.
